

I urge you to not allow further media concentration. Further concentration will decrease democracy, lessen consumer choice, and goes against a basic tenet of capitalism, i.e. competition in the marketplace. It will lessen diversity of content and ultimately make the industry less viable.